

Choose the correct phrase that you can use when ordering food in a restaurant:

1. Waiter: May I take your order please?

Customer:

A) May I have the check, please?

B) What's the soup of the day?

C) Give me salad.

D) What do you recommend?

2. Waiter: would you like vegetable beef soup with that?

Customer:

A) How much is that?

B) How is every thing here?

C) I'd like juice

D) All false

3. Customer: May I have the check, please?

The waiter asked him before:

A) What would you like?

B) Would you like coffee or dessert?

C) May I take your order?

D) May I take your plate?

4. Customer: What special today?

The Waiter asked him before

A) How is everything here?

B) would you like coffe or tea?

C) What would you like?

May I take your order?

5) Customer: I'll have the fruit salad?

The Waiter asked him before:

1) May I take your order?

2) What would you like?

3) How is every thing?

4) May I take your plate?

choose the correct advice for these sentences

6) you----- arranging your room.

~ had better

~ would

~ can

~ can't

7)you -----come near T.V

~ could not

~ should not

~ have

~ can

8)I lie awake at night I-----go to sleep

~ recommend

~ advice

~ recommend that you not

~ can't

9)the baby -----eat healthily

~ can

~ should

~ ought to

~ (1+3)

10)I -----you not to be offensive

~ advise

~ recommend

~ should

~ (1+2)