classroom learning is not practical for many people due to time and cost constraints. in addition, taking time away from work or other responsibilities to attend language courses at an institution is difficult for many people . With a self-study, online course students can take lessons at home or in the office whenever they want. All they need in a computer and an internet connection .for example, a busy executive can take a language lesson during her lunch hour . a parent with small children can study online at night . in addition , because the student doesn't have to drive anywhere, online learning saver money

what about online communication? Can one determine another person's gender just by reading their written words? Susan herring thinks so. In a 1994 talk at a panel called "making the net*work*", she said that men and women have recognizably different styles on the internet. Her research showed that on internet discussion boards, men tended to be more assertive than women. Women, in contrast, tended to hedge (be unsure), apologize, and ask questions. Men also appeared to enjoy, or at least tolerate, "flaming" (insulting others online), whereas women disliked and avoided it.

studying abroad offers students many advantages. First of all, students have the opportunity to learn a new language by interacting with native speakers every day. In addition, the students live in a new culture, so they can learn both in and out of the classroom. Studying abroad also teaches students that there are other ways of looking at the world. This is a very important part of education. In addition, students learn to be flexible because they have to adapt to different ways of living. they experience another culture in a much more significant way than if they simply took a vacation to another country. Also, foreign students are far from home. Therefore, they have to become responsible and self-reliant. When they study abroad, students have an experience they will remember all their lives
