

I have many qualities that have made me a success as a bike messenger. First of all, I have the ability to persevere when there are difficulties. I also find math very difficult, but I have a tutor now who has been a great help to me. And bike messengers run into many difficulties. I have had problems with drivers who almost run me over, constant rain for weeks at a time, unreachable addresses, and rude customers. I think the drivers in New York are the worst in any city I have seen. In addition, my dedication to the job has also served me well. I believe that you should do your best at even the most routine jobs. For example, I work hard at finding short cuts around the city. And I'm proud to say that when a package needs to be delivered really quickly, my boss always calls on me. Finally, my success as a bike messenger is partly due to my sense of humor. Many times I have wanted to quit, but I just try to laugh at the situation.
