

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم
اسئلة من اختبار عام 1433 للنشر الانجليزي (3)

1) I learned French and started to get the drift of French newspapers

- To understand the general idea

- To understand completely

- To read newspapers

- To change the meaning of something

2) We won tonight. This is our night

- Everything is going fine for us

- Everything is going against us

- Everything is going badly

- Everything is going negatively

3) Some people like to be in a comfort zone

- In a relaxing space

- In a patronizing space

- In the wrong space

- In the right space

4) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: School children are seeing their country's most famous landmarks for the first time

- Places that serve as typical markers on the land

- Marks on the land

- An important person

- A plot of land marked out for a house to be put up

5) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: This poor man makes good quality carpets, these handmade carpets are very beautiful

- Kept close to hands

- Made by hand not a machine

- Made with a pattern of handprints

- Seized by hands

6) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet Service provider is offering high Internet speed the upload and download rates of files are amazing

- Moving internet from one place to another
- Moving information up and down from a computer to a server
- Moving the computer mouse
- Subscribing to an Internet Service Provider

7) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: Farm economies made room for craftsmen and gave way to industrial production

- People who are crafty
- People who are sneaky
- People who make crafts with their hands
- People who work in industrial factories

8) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet now offers a lot of marketplace websites for trading goods

- A website to buy and sell
- A website to chat
- A website to exchange information
- A website for entertainment

9) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet telecentres has reached the village

- Locations for meetings
- Locations for restaurants
- Locations for communication by computers
- Locations to trade in old goods

10) guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The test was a piece of cake

- Difficult
- Delicious
- Easy
- Portion