

27-70 - After returning <sup>بعد العودة</sup> to his ordinary life, <sup>حياته العادية</sup> Wordsworth <sup>يسترجع</sup> recalled <sup>المنظر الجميل</sup> the beautiful sight of the flowers.

37-70. "Daffodils" reminds us about the arrival of the <sup>الربيع</sup> spring <sup>فصل</sup> season. <sup>تذكرنا</sup>

11. "Daffodils" belongs to the Romantic Age. <sup>عصر الرومانسية</sup>

24-70. "Daffodils" is one of the most popular <sup>واحدة</sup> poems of the Romantic Age. <sup>من أشهر</sup>

32. Poetic creation <sup>الإبداع الشعري</sup> is an obvious demonstration <sup>منظرة واضحة</sup> of Wordsworth.

23-70. "Daffodils" illustrates Wordsworth's <sup>توضيح</sup> theory of Poetic creation. <sup>نظرية الإبداع الشعري</sup>

35-70 - William Wordsworth was born in 1770. <sup>وُلِدَ</sup>

Wordsworth  $\Rightarrow$  Rainbow <sup>قصيدة ألوان الطيف</sup> The rhyme scheme in Rainbow is abccabeddd. <sup>القافية</sup>