

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم
الشعر الانجليزي(التعاريف المحاضرة الأولى)

1) a comparison between two objects for the purpose of describing one of them; a metaphor states that the one object is the other

- Personification
- Metaphor
- Alliteration
- Diction

2) is giving inanimate objects or abstract ideas human qualities or actions; making non-human things appear as human

- Personification
- Alliteration
- Diction
- Metaphor

3) an extended narrative poem, with heroic subject matter and theme, and exalted tone

- Personification
- Alliteration
- Metaphor
- Epic

4) close repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words

- Alliteration
- Metaphor
- Diction
- Rhyme

5) the use of words with similar sounds in poetry, usually but not always at the ends of lines

- Alliteration
- Metaphor
- Rhyme
- Diction

6) a group of lines in a poem divided off from the others. Each stanza is usually the same number of lines in length

- Stanza
- Rhyme
- Diction
- Alliteration

7) an author's choice and use of words; his vocabulary

- Diction
- Alliteration
- Rhyme
- Stanza