

1) Circle the correct answer in the following multiple choice questions: 1. Morphology is the level of grammar concerned with the

- Structure of words
- Structure of words

2) The association between most words and their meanings is purely

- Conventional
- Always free

3) When we derive one word from another, we

- Change its class, for example, from Verb to Noun
- Change its tense, for example, from Past to Present

4) . Roots are

- Always free
- NOT always free

5) A compound is a word that contains

- Two root morphemes and one word
- Two free standing forms

6) 6. is a morpheme that makes the most significant contribution to a word's meaning.

- The derivational morpheme
- The root

7) is some kind of resemblance between the sound of a word and what it denotes/means

- Proverbs
- Onomatopoeia

8) Suppletion occurs when a word is represented by two or more roots.

- Similar
- Different

9) Choose the group of words that result from derivation

- Tooth, teeth

- Kind, unkind, kindness, kindly

10) The starting point for a movement.

- LOCATION

- SOURCE

11) : The entity undergoing an action or a movement.

- AGENT

- THEME

12) The entity that performs an action.

- AGENT

- AGENT

13) The end point of an action or a movement.

- THEME:

- GOAL

14) The place where an action occurs.

- AGENT

- LOCATION