

- 1- Modern children's literature is classified in two different ways:
- a) General adolescent and juvenile literature
 - b) Genre or the intention of the reader
 - c) Immature literature and mature literature
 - d) Jovial literature or literature of the young
- 2- Late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries are considered the _____
- a) "Age of Enlightenment of Children"
 - b) "Age of Religious and Moral Message"
 - c) "Development Age of Children's Literature"
 - d) "Golden Age of Children's Literature"
- 3- Dictionaries and encyclopedias are _____
- a) Included in children's literature
 - b) Excluded from children's literature
 - c) Included with reservation in children's literature
 - d) Excluded from Oratorical literature
- 4- What is Chromolithography used in children's books?
- a) a way of making multi-colored prints
 - b) a way of repeating the same images
 - c) a way of refining children's books
 - d) a way of translating children's books
- 5- The first illustrated children's book is considered to be Orbis Pictus 1658 by the Moravian _____
- a) Joyce Whalley
 - b) Comenius
 - c) Byzantine Egyptian
 - d) Seth Lere
- 6- One of the top artists in the West illustrating for children was _____
- a) Kay Nielson
 - b) Panchatantra
 - c) Randolph Caldecott
 - d) Nandalal Bose
- 7- _____ divided children's literature in Europe during 500-1000 AD into Didactic and Moral, Court-related, Educational, Religious, and Pleasure.
- a) Homer
 - b) Aesop
 - c) Nandalal Bose
 - d) Daniel Kline
- 8- Russia's earliest children's books, primers, appeared around 1500s. A _____ published in 1571.
- a) Le Morte d'Arthur
 - b) Aesop's Fables
 - c) ABC-Book

#علوش_الحزم