

I learned French and started to get the drift of French newspapers (

To understand the general idea

To understand completely

To read newspapers

To change the meaning of something

We won tonight. This is our night (٢

Everything is going fine for us

Everything is going against us

Everything is going badly

Everything is going negatively

Some people like to be in a comfort zone (٣

In a relaxing space

In a patronizing space

In the wrong space

In the right space guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: School children are seeing their (٤ country's most famous landmarks for the first time

Places that serve as typical markers on the land

Marks on the land

An important person

A plot of land marked out for a house to be put up guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: This poor man makes good quality (٥ carpets, these handmade carpets are very beautiful

Kept close to hands

Made by hand not a machine

Made with a pattern of handprints

Seized by hands

guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet Service provider is offering high Internet speed the upload and download rates of files are amazing

Moving internet from one place to another

Moving information up and down from a computer to a server

Moving the computer mouse

Subscribing to an Internet Service Provider guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: Farm economies made room for craftsmen and gave way to industrial production

People who are crafty

People who are sneaky

People who make crafts with their hands

People who work in industrial factories guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet now offers a lot of marketplace websites for trading goods

A website to buy and sell

A website to chat

A website to exchange information

A website for entertainment guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The Internet telecentres has reached the village

Locations for meetings

Locations for restaurants

Locations for communication by computers

Locations to trade in old goods guess the meaning of the italicized compound words: The test was a piece of cake (1)

Difficult

Delicious

Easy

Portion