2 each year, Dorothy sends from 38 to 40 packages full of clothing. This tradition began 23 years ago when her youngest son, Jordan, was in Malawi.

3 Dorothy had been renting out some of her rooms in her house in Malawi. After waiting a year for a reply from him, she opened it and found the needy people in Malawi .So she sent them to her sons & daughters.

4 Dorothy spends about $2,000 a year on postage and sends away number of families she is providing for has grown to 70. In a small book Dorothy keeps track of all 70 families. She sorts the clothes according to size and packs them based on each family's needs. Dorothy brings the package to the post office and off it goes. this accomplished She .76 turned she year the boxes 76 send to her for was project her of points high the of One 5 .make can person one difference much how just shows it and ,task a than that have rather would I. clothes of armful an with by comes neighbor a when me to gratifying so is It;quot& 6 importance places who woman a is she. heroine a ,woman old-year-88 an of words are these ;quot& dollars thousand Peace the in was he when son her to kind were Malawi of people The .met never she those even ,others for doing on .more times many favor the returned has she and ,Corps
