

15. The "in-" in the word inhuman is.....
 a. a suffix.
 b. a root.
 c. a prefix.
 d. an infix.
16. The antonym of the word "rational" can be formed by adding.....
 a. the prefix "un".
 b. the prefix "ir".
 c. the prefix "in".
 d. the prefix "im".
17. In "Sally and Nadia were bracing themselves for the racing competition" bracing themselves means.....
 a. to start racing.
 b. to stay awake.
 c. to prepare for something difficult.
 d. to wash their cars before an appointment.
18. In "Nadeen studied German and she started to get the drift of the German magazines," to get the drift of means.....
 a. to understand each and every word and meaning.
 b. to read any kind of newspapers.
 c. to forget your first language.
 d. to understand the general idea.
19. A synonym for the word "elite" is.....
 a. lower class.
 b. poor class.
 c. upper class.
 d. working class.
20. "feel at home" in "They make me feel at home" means....
 a. to cause someone to think about his or her future.
 b. to help someone to feel comfortable.
 c. to force someone to think about returning home.
 d. to influence someone's decision.

Part two (Answer the questions from 21 - 35).

Read the following passage carefully and then answer the following questions.
 Don't think that Americans are being rude if they tend to speak in monosyllables or answer with a mere "O.K.," "Sure," or "Nope" or greet you with "Hi." Our brevity is not a personal insult; American informality has become more desirable than formal expressions of greeting or farewell. The United States (US) is a do-it-yourself country. We generally carry our own bags, take our laundry to the Laundromat, stand in line at the grocery store, or shine our own shoes, wherever we may be. We do our own daily chores. Americans may devote a great deal of their leisure time to projects around the home. Huge warehouse stores that cater to do-it-yourself tasks have been built throughout the country.

21. A "grocery store" in the above passage refers to a store from which we can buy....
 a. cars.
 b. food.
 c. mobiles.
 d. books.
22. A "do-it-yourself society" is a society that.....
 a. uses products that require other professional people to install.
 b. uses products that we should buy for ourselves.
 c. uses products that one can assemble by himself/herself.
 d. uses products that no one can assemble.
23. The word "laundry" in the above passage means.....
 a. clothes that should be sold.
 b. clothes that need to be washed.
 c. clothes that need to be repaired.
 d. clothes that should be thrown away.
24. The word "huge" in the above passage means....
 a. very small.
 b. very little.
 c. very big.
 d. very tall.
25. The word "leisure" in the above passage means.....
 a. working time.
 b. bad time.
 c. free time.
 d. critical time.