Strategy

Skimming for the Topic and Main Idea

You can skim a reading to identify the topic and the main idea. To skim, read the title and any subheadings, look at any photos and diagrams, read the first two and the last two sentences of each paragraph, read quickly, and don't read every word.

The topic of a paragraph is what the paragraph is about. This is a noun or noun phrase. The main idea of a paragraph is what the writer wants to say about the topic—giving information and/or his or her opinion about the topic. Sometimes, a sentence or two includes the main idea of the paragraph. This is often the first or second sentence in the paragraph. The other sentences give details about the main idea.
