If I had lots of money

I would just eat milk and honey

And never once would clean my teeth.

If I had lots of cash

I would throw a great big bash

And just invite my closest friends.

If I had lots of spend

All my toys I could mend

Especially the ones I like the best.

If I had lots to use

You would see me on the news

As I gave it away to everyone.

So if I had lots of money

I think it might be funny

And I would make sure everybody laughed!

*How good to lie a little while
And look up through the tree!
The Sky is like a kind big smile
Bent sweetly over me.*

*The Sunshine flickers through the lace
Of leaves above my head,
And kisses me upon the face
Like Mother, before bed.*

*The Wind comes stealing o'er the grass
To whisper pretty things;
And though I cannot see him pass,
I feel his careful wings.*

*So many gentle Friends are near
Whom one can scarcely see,
A child should never feel a fear,
Wherever he may be.*
