

1) The moral.....of GE is simple: affection, loyalty, and conscience are more important than social wealth/ advancement :

- Theme
- Plot
- Symbol
- motif

2) In....., Dickens creates a gothic setting :

- The TEMPLE
- Satis House
- Richmond
- Barnard's inn

3) The temple is the second respectable place into which Pip and Herbert move in..... :

- Leeds
- London
- Manchester
- Nottingham

4) GE's structures comprises.....emergent stages :

- 9
- 7
- 4
- 3

5) 'I give Pirrip as my father's name on the <.....>of his tombstone'. What is the missing word..... :

- Authority
- Right
- Behalf
- credit

6) 'But I loved Joe-perhaps for no better reason than because the deal fellow let me love him'. The speaker of the previous quote is..... :

- Pip
- Orick
- Pumblechook
- Mrs. Joe

7)is one of the most clearly autobiographical novels of Dickens :

- Little Dorrit
- Hard Times
- David Copperfield
- Oliver Twist

8) Most of Dickens' novels were written in weekly installments in journals. Part of the writer's talent was to incorporate this.....writing style but still end up with a coherent novel :

- Dramatic
- Ironic
- Journalistic
- Episodic

9) Satis House resembles..... :

- Hospital
- prison
- Castle
- School

10) In GE, the narrator uses images of inanimate objects to describe.....of some characters :

- physical appearance
- religious background
- regional attitude
- philosophical outlook

11) GE is regarded as Dickens' 'grotesque.....' conception, probably of the mix of comedy and tragedy that adorns most of the novel :

- tragicomic
- Poetic
- Comic

- Tragic