

1) A declarative sentence I had a nice time

- Expressive

- (directive)

2) A declarative sentence I would like some coffee

- (directive)

- (directive)

3) interrogative sentence (Isn't that great?)

- (directive)

- expressive function

4) interrogative sentence ( Don't you want to help me?)

- directive function

- (directive)

5) imperative sentence (shut the windows)

- directive function

- (directive)

6) imperative sentence ( read pages 6 to 9 for the test )

- (directive)

- informative function

7) imperative sentence (Have a nice day).

- expressive function

- (directive)

8) exclamatory sentence (the universe is bounded! )

- (directive)

- expressive function

9) exclamatory sentence ( I am glad !)

- (directive)

- expressive function

10) exclamatory sentence (Really it is late!)

- directive function

- (directive)

11) Shut the window !

- Request

- Command

12) Can you please shut the window?

- Request

- Advice

13) you look ill. You had better see a doctor

- Request

- Advice

14) You can come in now

- Giving permission

- Advice

15) Can I come in?

- Asking for permission

- Advice

16) Let's go to the library tonight

- Asking for permission

- Suggestion

17) I will help you with the writing of the essay

- Promise:

- Asking for permission

18) I think that Trump will be the next president of the USA. B: I don't think so. He won't. C: You are right. He will be.

- Asking for permission

- Agreement or disagreement A

19) If you do that again I will divorce you!

- Threat

- Refusal

20) Will you marry me? No way!

- Threat

- Refusal

21) Will you marry me? Sure, I will

- Acceptance

- Threat

22) I hate eating fish every day. I told you that hundreds of time!

- Threat

- Complaining

23) Will you join us for my son's birthday tomorrow?

- Invitation

- Threat