III - Poetry

Read the following poem and then answer the questions below.

Because I could not stop for Death , لننى لم استطع التوقع عن الموت

He kindly stopped for me;

The carriage held but just ourselves

And Immortality

We slowly drove, he knew no haste,

And I had put away

My labour, and my leisure too,

For his civility

We passed the school where children played,

Their lessons scarcely done;

We passed the fields of gazing grain

We passed the setting sun

Or rather, he passed us

The dews grew quivering and chill,

For only gossamer my gown,

My tippet only tulle

We paused before a house that seemed

A swelling of the ground;

The roof was scarcely visible,

The cornice but a mound

Since then 'tis centuries; but each

Feels shorter than the day

I first surmised the horses' heads

Were toward eternity
