2. Pronunciation

French letter(s)	English Sound
a, à, â	ah
é, et, and final er and ez	ay
e, è, ê, ai, ei, ais	eh
i, y	ee
o	oh
o	shorter and more open than aw in bought ou	oo
oy, oi	wah
u	ew
u + vowel	wee
c (before e, i, y)	s
ç (before a, o, u)	s
c (before a, o, u)	k
g (before e, i, y)	zh
ge (before a, o)	zh
g (before a, o, u)	g
gn	nyuh

h	silent
j	zh
qu, final q	k
r	rolled
s (between vowels)	z
th	t
x	ekss, except as s in six , dix , and soixante in liaisons, like z

Note: French pronunciation is tricky because it uses nasal sounds which we do not have in English and there are a lot of silent letters. However, if a word ends in C, R, F or L (except verbs that end in -r) you usually pronounce the final consonant. Their vowels tend to be shorter as well. The French slur most words together in a sentence, so if a word ends in a consonant that is not pronounced and the next word starts with a vowel or silent h, slur the two together as if it were one word.

More about Pronunciation

1. The "slurring" that I mentioned is called liaison. It is always made:

- after a determiner (words like un, des, les, mon, ces, *quel*s)
- before or after a pronoun (vous avez, je les ai)
- after a preceding adjective (bon ami, petits enfants)
- after one syllable prepositions (en avion, dans un livre)
- after some one syllable adverbs (très, plus, bien)
- after est

It is optional after pas, trop fort, and the forms of être, but it is never made after et.

2. Sometimes the e is dropped in words and phrases, shortening the syllables and slurring more words.

- rapid(e)ment, lent(e)ment, sauv(e)tage (pronounced ra-peed-mawn, not ra-peed-uh-mawn)
- sous l(e) bureau, chez l(e) docteur (pronounced sool bewr-oh, not soo luh bewr-oh)
- il a d(e) bons copains (eel ahd bohn ko-pahn, not eel ah duh bohn ko-pahn)
- il y a d(e)... , pas d(e)... , plus d(e)... (eel yahd, pahd, plewd, not eel ee ah duh, pah duh, or plew duh)
- je n(e), de n(e) (zhuhn, duhn, not zhuh nuh or duh nuh)
- j(e) te, c(e) que (shtuh, skuh, not zhuh tuh or suh kuh - note the change of the pronunciation of the j as well)

3. In general, intonation only rises for yes/no questions, and all other times, it goes down at the end of the sentence.

4. Two sounds that are tricky to an American English speaker are the differences between the long and short u and e. The long u is pronounced oooh, as in hoot. The short u does not exist in English though. To pronounce it correctly, round your lips as if to whistle, and then say eee. The long and short e are relatively easy to pronounce, but sometimes it is difficult to hear the difference. The long e is pronounced openly, like ay, as in play. The short e is more closed, and pronounced like eh, as in bed.

6. And of course, the nasals. These are what present the most problems for English speakers. Here are the orthographical representations, and approximate pronunciations. Nasal means that you expel air through your nose while saying the words, so don't actually pronounce the n fully.

My Representation	Pronunciation	Orthographical Representation
ahn_	an apple	in, im, yn, ym, ain, aim, ein, eim, un, um, en, eng, oin, oing, oint, ien, yen, éen
awn_	on the desk	en, em, an, am, aon, aen
ohn_	my own book	on, om

In words beginning with in-, a nasal is only used if the next letter is a consonant. Otherwise, the in-prefix is pronounced een before a vowel.

3. Alphabet

b	beh	k	kah	t	teh
c	seh	l	ell	u	oooh
d	deh	m	em	v	veh
e	uh	n	en	w	doo-blah-veh

g	zheh	p	peh	y	ee-grek
h	ahsh	q	koo	z	zed
i	ee	r	air

4. Nouns, Articles and Demonstrative Adjectives

All nouns in French have a gender, either masculine or feminine. For the most part, you must memorize the gender, but there are some endings of words that will help you decide which gender a noun is. Nouns ending in -age and -ment are usually masculine, as are nouns ending with a consonant. Nouns ending in -ure, -sion, -tion, -ence, -ance, -té, and -ette are usually feminine.

Articles and adjectives must agree in number and gender with the nouns they modify. And articles have to be expressed even though they aren't always in English; and you may have to repeat the article in some cases. Demonstratives are like strong definite articles.

Definite Articles (The)

Masculine      Feminine      Before Vowel      Plural

le lit	la pomme	l'oiseau	les gants
the bed	the apple	the bird	the gloves

Indefinite Articles (A, An, Some)

Masculine	Feminine	Plural
un lit a bed	une pomme an apple	des gants some gloves

Demonstrative Adjectives (This, That, These, Those)

Masc.	Masc, Before Vowel	Fem.	Plural
ce lit this/that bed	cet oiseau this/that bird	cette pomme this/that apple	ces gants these/those gloves

If you need to distinguish between this or that and these or those, you can add -ci to the end of the noun for this and these, and -là to the end of the noun for that and those. For example, ce lit-ci is this bed, while ce lit-là is that bed.

Elle	ell	She	Elles	ell	They (fem.)
On	ohn	One

Note: Il and elle can also mean it when they replace a noun (il replaces masculine nouns, and elle replaces feminine nouns) instead of a person's name. Ils and elles can replace plural nouns as well in the same way. Notice there are two ways to say you. Tu is used when speaking to children, animals, or close friends and relatives. Vous is used when speaking to more than one person, or to someone you don't know or who is older. On can be translated into English as one, the people, we, they, or you.

Also, when the numbers 5, 6, 8, and 10 are used before a word beginning with a consonant, their final consonants are not pronounced.

connaître -to know people ( koh-net-truh )	savoir -to know facts ( sahv-wahr )
connais koh-neh connaissons koh-nezz-ohn	sais say savons sah-vohn
connais koh-neh connaissez koh-nezz-ay	sais say savez sav-ay
connaît koh-neh connaissent koh-nezz	sait say savent sahv

Note: Connaître is used when you know people or places, savoir is used when you know facts. When savoir is followed by an infinitive it means to know how.

Je connais ton frère. I know your brother.

Je sais que ton frère s'appelle Jean. I know that your brother is named John.

Connaissez-vous Grenoble? Do you know (Are you familiar with) Grenoble?

Oui, nous connaissons Grenoble. Yes, we know (are familiar with) Grenoble.

19. Formation of Plural Nouns

To make a noun plural, you usually add an -s. But there are some exceptions:

Sing.      Plural

If a noun already ends in an -s, add nothing.	bus	le bus	les bus
If a noun ends in -eu or -eau, add an x.	boat	le bateau	les bateaux
If a masculine noun ends in -al or -ail, change it to -aux.	horse	le cheval	les chevaux
Some nouns ending in -ou add an -x instead of -s.	knee	le genou	les genoux

There are, of course, some weird exceptions: un œil (eye) - des yeux (eyes); le ciel (sky) - les cieux (skies); and un jeune homme (a young man) - des jeunes gens (young men).

20. Possessive Adjectives

	Masc.	Fem.	Plural

Your	votre	votre	vos
Their	leur ( luhr )	leur	leurs ( luhr )

Note: Possessive pronouns go before the noun. When a feminine noun begins with a vowel, you must use the masculine form of the pronoun for ease of pronunciation. Ma amie is incorrect and must be mon amie, even though amie is feminine.

The extra ending shown above is added to signify a feminine subject. To make them plural, just add an -s (unless it already ends in an -s, then add nothing.) The masculine forms of the nationalities are also used to signify the language. And the definite article is not used before a language when it follows the verb parler (to speak.)

25. Negative Sentences

To make sentences negative, simply put ne and pas around the verb. In spoken French, however, the ne is frequently omitted, but it cannot be omitted in written French. And when you are replying "yes" to a negative question, you use si and not oui.

Je suis du Canada. I am from Canada.

Aller is also used idiomatically when talking about health.
 Comment vas-tu? How are you?
 Je vais bien. I'm fine.

Venir de + an infinitive means "to have just done something."
 Il vient d'aller à la Finlande. He just went to Finland.
 Vous venez de manger une pomme. You just ate an apple.

28. Conjugating Regular Verbs in the Present Indicative Tense

Verbs in French end in -er, -re, or -ir. The verb before it is conjugated is called the infinitive.
 Removing the last two letters leaves you with the stem (aimer is the infinitive, aim- is the stem.) The present indicative tense indicates an ongoing action, general state, or habitual activity. Besides the simple present tense (I write, I run, I see); there are two other forms of the present tense in English: the progressive (I am writing, I am running, etc.) and the emphatic (I do write, I do run, etc.) However, these three English present tenses are all translated by the present indicative tense in French.

To conjugate verbs in the present tense, use the stem and add the following endings.

-er	-re	1st -ir	2nd -ir*
-e      -ons	-s      -ons	-is    -issons	-s      -ons
-es     -ez	-s      -ez	-is    -issez	-s      -ez
-e      -ent	-       -ent	-it    -issent	-t      -ent

Sample Regular Verbs

aimer -to like, love    vendre - to sell j'aime	zhem	aimons	em-oh_n	vends	vawn	vendons	vawn-dohn

aimes	em	aimez	em-ay	vends	vawn	vendez	vawn-day

trouver	troo-vay	to find	guérir	gay-reer	to cure, heal

Note: If a verb is followed by à (like répondre) you have to use the à and any contractions after the conjugated verb. Ex: Je réponds au téléphone.

* The 2nd -ir verbs are considered irregular sometimes because there are only a few verbs which follow that pattern. Other verbs like partir are sortir (to go out), dormir (to sleep), mentir (to lie), sentir (to smell, feel) and servir (to serve.)

29. Pronominal (Reflexive) Verbs

These verbs are conjugated like normal verbs, but they require an extra pronoun before the verb. Most indicate a reflexive action but some are idiomatic and can't be translated literally. The pronouns are:

me nous

te vous

se se

Some Pronominal Verbs

s'amuser	to have fun	se reposer	to rest
se lever	to get up	se souvenir de	to remember
se laver	to wash (oneself)	s'entendre bien	to get along well
se dépêcher	to hurry	se coucher	to go to bed
se peigner	to comb	se brosser	to brush
s'habiller	to get dressed	se maquiller	to put on makeup
se marier	to get married	se casser	to break (arm, leg, etc.)

Note: When used in the infinitive, such as after another verb, the reflexive pronoun agrees with the subject of the sentence. Je vais me coucher maintenant. I'm going to go to bed.

Sample Irregular Pronominal Verb

s'asseoir - to sit down

je m'assieds	mah-see-ay	nous nous asseyons	noo-zah-say-ohn
tu t'assieds	tah-see-ay	vous vous asseyez	vous-zah-say-yay
il s'assied	sah-see-ay	ils s'asseyent	sah-say-ee

30. Irregularities in Regular Verbs

1. Verbs that end in -ger and -cer: The nous form of manger isn't mangons, but mangeons. The e has to stay so the g can retain the soft sound. The nous form of commencer isn't commencons, but commençons. The c must have the accent (called a cedilla) under it to make the c sound soft.

manger-to eat			commencer-to begin mange	mawnzh	mangeons	mawn-zhoh <sub>n</sub>	commence	koh-mawnz
manges	mawnzh	mangez	mawn-zhay	commences	koh-mawnz
mange	mawnzh	mangent	mawnzh	commence	koh-mawnz

2. Verbs that add or change to an accent grave: Some verbs add or change to an accent grave (è) in all the forms except the nous and vous.

acheter-to buy			espérer-to hope j'achète	zhah-shet	achetons	ahsh-tohn	j'espère	zhess-pehr
achètes	ah-shet	achetez	ahsh-tay	espères	ess-pehr
achète	ah-shet	achètent	ah-shet	espère	ess-pehr
				espérez	ess-pay-ray
				espèrent	ess-pehr

3. Verbs that are conjugated as -er verbs: Some -ir verbs are conjugated with -er endings. For example: offrir-to offer, give, ouvrir-to open, couvrir-to cover, découvrir-to discover and souffrir-to suffer.

offrir-to offer
j'offre	zhaw-fruh	offrons	aw-frohn
offres	aw-fruh	offrez	aw-fray
offre	aw-fruh	offrent	aw-fruh

4. Verbs that end in -yer: Change the y to an i in all forms except the nous and vous. Examples: envoyer-to send (aw<sub>n</sub>-vwah-yay), nettoyer-to clean (nuh-twah-yay), essayer-to try (ess-ah-yay) envoyer-to send j'envoie	zhawn-vwah	envoyons	aw <sub>n</sub> -vwah-yohn

envoies	aw <sub>n</sub> -vwah	envoyez	aw <sub>n</sub> -vwah-yay
envoie	aw <sub>n</sub> -vwah	envoient	aw <sub>n</sub> -vwah

5. Verbs that double the consonant: Some verbs, such as appeler-to call (ahp-lay), and jeter-to throw (zheh-tay) double the consonant in all forms except the nous and vous.

appeler-to call

j'appelle zhah-pell    appelons ahp-lohn appelles ah-pell    appelez ahp-lay appelle ah-pell    appellent ah-pell

31. The Past Indefinite Tense or Passé Composé

You have learned the present indicative so far, which expresses what happens, is happening, or does happen now; but if you want to say something happened, or has happened, you have to use the passé composé. The passé composé is used for actions that happened only once, a specified number of times or during a specified period of time, and as a result or consequence of another action. All you need to learn are the past participles of the verbs.

Regular Verbs: Formation of the Past Participle

-er -é
-re -u
-ir -i

Then conjugate avoir and add the past participle:

J'ai aimé le concert. I liked the concert.
Tu as habité ici? You lived here?
Il a répondu au téléphone. He answered (or has answered) the telephone.
Nous avons fini le projet. We finished (or have finished) the project.
Elles ont rempli les tasses. They filled (or have filled) the cups.

To make it negative, put the ne and pas around the conjugated form of avoir.

Je n'ai pas aimé le concert. I didn't like the concert.
Il n'a pas répondu. He didn't answer (or hasn't answered).
Elles n'ont pas rempli les tasses. They didn't fill (or haven't filled) the glasses.

33. Etre Verbs

Sixteen "house" verbs and all pronominal verbs are conjugated with être, and they must agree in gender and number with the subject. The house verbs are:

aller-to go	sortir-to go out	venir-to come	mourir-to die
arriver-to arrive	partir-to leave	devenir-to become	monter-to go up entrer-to enter	tomber-to fall	revenir-to come back	rester-to stay
rentrer-to return home	naître-to be born	passer-to go by (pass)	descendre-to go down

Most have regular past participles, except venir-venu, devenir-devenu, revenir-revenu, mourir-mort, and naître-né. And five of these verbs, monter, descendre, sortir, rentrer, and passer can sometimes be conjugated with avoir if they are used with a direct object. Elle a rentré le livre à la bibliothèque. She returned the book to the library.

Conjugation of an être verb

Je suis resté(e)	Nous sommes resté(e)s
Tu es resté(e)	Vous êtes resté(e)(s)
Il est resté	Ils sont restés
Elle est restée	Elles sont restées

You add the e for feminine and s for plural. Vous can have any of the endings.

Conjugation of a Pronominal Verb

Je me suis amusé(e)	Nous nous sommes amusé(e)s
Tu t'es amusé(e)	Vous vous êtes amusé(e)(s)
Il s'est amusé	Ils se sont amusés
Elle s'est amusée	Elles se sont amusées

There are only two cases with pronominal verbs where the past participle does not agree:

1. When the pronominal verb is followed by a direct object.

Compare: Elles se sont lavées, but elles se sont lavé les mains.

2. With verbs where the reflexive pronoun is an indirect object, such as se parler, se demander, se dire, s'écrire, se sourire, and se téléphoner.

Ils se sont téléphoné.

36. To Take, Eat or Drink

Prendre-to take, eat or drink ( prawn-druh )				Boire-to drink ( bwahr ) prends	prawn	prenons	pruh-nohn	bois	bwah	buvons	bew-vohn prends	prawn	prenez	pru-nay	bois	bwah	buvez	bew-vay
prend	prawn	prennent	prenn	boit	bwah	boivent	bwahv

Other verbs that are conjugated like prendre: apprendre - to learn, comprendre - to understand and surprendre - to surprise.

Note: When you want to say "I am having wine," the French translation is "Je prends du vin." You must use de and le, la, l', or les and the proper contractions (called partitives) because in French you must also express some. So "je prends de la bière" literally means "I am having some beer" even though in English we would usually only say I am having beer.

Manger is a regular verb meaning "to eat," but manger is used in a general sense, such as Je mange le poulet tous les samedis. I eat chicken every Saturday. Boire is literally the verb to drink and is also used in a general sense only. Je bois du vin tout le temps. I drink wine all the time.

37. Quantities

assez de	enough (of)	un morceau de	a piece of	une douzaine de	a dozen of une assiette de	a plate of	un peu de	a little (bit) of	un paquet de	a packet of beaucoup de	a lot of	une tasse de	a cup of	un panier de	a basket of une boîte de	a box of	une tranche de	a slice of	une poignée de	a handful of une bouteille de	a bottle of	trop de	too much, many	plus de	more un kilo de	a kilo of	un verre de	a glass of	un bouquet de	a bunch of

Note: With quantities and negatives, you never use partitives. The construction is always de or d' + noun.

Je voudrais prendre du fromage, mais pas de fruit. I would like to have some cheese, but no fruit.
Il prend de la viande. He is eating some meat.

Nous prenons du riz et du brocoli. We are having some rice and broccoli.

Il y a trop de lait dans la tasse. There is too much milk in the cup.

Je voudrais un morceau de tarte. I would like one piece of pie.

Est-ce que je peux prendre un verre de vin? May I have a glass of wine?

Je prends du vin. I'm drinking some wine.

Je ne prends pas de vin. I am not drinking any wine.

38. Commands

Use the vous, tu and nous forms for commands.

Vous form	Polite and Plural	Same as verb form	Restez!	Stay!
Tu form	Familiar	Same as verb form, but drop -s for -er verbs	Regarde!	Watch!
Nous form	Let's...	Same as verb form	Allons!	Let's go!

Note: With using pronominal verbs as commands, the pronoun is placed after the verb connected by a hyphen. Tu te dépêches becomes Dépêche-toi! And in negative commands, the pronoun precedes the verb, as in Ne nous reposons pas.

Irregular Command Forms

	être (be)		avoir (have)		savoir (know) tu	sois	swah	tu	aie	ay	tu	sache	sahsh
nous	soyons	swah-yohn	nous	ayons	ay-yohn	nous	sachons	sah-shohn
vous	soyez	swah-yay	vous	ayez	ay-yay	vous	sachez	sah-shay

Ne sois pas méchant à ta sœur! Don't be mean to your sister!

N'ayez pas peur! Don't be afraid!

Sachez les mots pour l'examen demain! Know the words for the exam tomorrow!

39. More Negatives

ne...plus	no longer
ne...jamais	never
ne...rien	nothing
ne...aucun(e)	not a single one
ne...que	only
ne...personne	nobody
ne...ni...ni	neither...nor
ne...nulle part	nowhere

The negatives are used exactly like ne...pas; but que in ne...que is placed directly before the noun it limits. Rien and personne may be used as subjects: Personne n'est ici. Aucun(e) by definition is singular, so the verb and nouns must also be changed to the singular. With ni...ni, all articles are dropped except definite articles. Je n'ai ni caméra ni caméscope, but Je n'aime ni les chats ni les chiens.

Il n'aime plus travailler. He no longer likes to work. (Or: He doesn't like to work anymore)

Nous ne voulons faire des achats que lundi. We want to go shopping only on Monday.

Elle ne déteste personne. She hates no one. (Or: She doesn't hate anyone.)

Negatives with Passé Composé

1. Ne...pas, ne...plus, ne...jamais, and ne...rien

Ne comes before auxiliary verb, and the other part is between auxiliary and past participle.

Nous n'avons rien fait. We did nothing. Vous ne vous êtes pas ennuyés. You were not bored.

2. Ne...personne, ne...aucun, ne...ni...ni, ne...nulle part, and ne... que

Ne comes before the auxiliary verb, but the other part is after the past participle.

Il n'a écouté personne. He listened to no one. Il n'a fait aucune faute. He made not a single mistake.

* Use of ne ... pas de: In negative sentences, the partitives and indefinite articles become de before the noun (unless the verb is être, then nothing changes.)

Partitive: Je prends du pain et du beurre. I'm having some bread and butter.

Negative: Je ne prends pas de pain ou de beurre. I am not having any bread or butter.

Indefinite: J'ai un chien. I have a dog.

Negative: Je n'ai pas de chien. I don't have a dog.

Verb is être: C'est une chatte brune. It's a brown cat.

Negative: Ce n'est pas une chatte brune. It's not a brown cat.

The French National Anthem: La Marseillaise

by Claude-Joseph Rouget de L'isle

Allons enfants de la Patrie, Le jour de gloire est arrivé.
Contre nous, de la tyrannie,
L'étandard sanglant est levé, l'étandard sanglant est levé.
Entendez-vous dans les campagnes Mugir ces farouches soldats.
Ils viennent jusque dans nos bras égorer vos fils, vos compagnes.
Aux armes citoyens! Formez vos bataillons, Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur Abreuve nos sillons.

Amour sacré de la Patrie,
Conduis, soutiens nos bras vengeurs.
Liberté, liberté chérie,
Combats avec tes défenseurs;
Sous nos drapeaux, que la victoire
Accoure à tes mâles accents;
Que tes ennemis expirants
Voient ton triomphe et notre gloire!
Aux armes citoyens!
Formez vos bataillons,
Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur Abreuve nos sillons.

*Ye sons of France, awake to glory, Hark, hark, what myriads bid you rise: Your children, wives and grandsires hoary, Behold their tears and hear their cries, see their tears and hear their cries! Shall hateful tyrants mischief breeding with hireling hosts, a ruffian band Affright and desolate the land, while peace and liberty lie bleeding?
To arms, to arms, ye brave! Th'avenging sword unsheathe!
March on! March on! All hearts resolved on victory or death.*

*O sacred love of france, undying,
Th'avenging arm uphold and guide
Thy defenders, death defying, Fight with Freedom on their side.
Soon thy sons shall be victorious
When the banner high is raised;
And thy dying enemies, amazed,
Shall behold thy triumph, great and glorious.
To arms, to arms, ye brave! Th'avenging sword unsheathe!
March on! March on! All hearts resolved on victory or death.*

Translation by Percy Bysshe Shelley (1st verse) and Mary Elizabeth Shaw (2nd verse) (This is not a literal translation.)

The Canadian National Anthem: O Canada

O Canada, terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux.
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix.
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
