

ظهور الرواية
المحاضرة العاشرة

1. On page 104, Robinson gives us a picture of how he came to an understanding of his life on the island. He reasons with himself in a very clear-cut way, putting the evil aspects of his life against the good. This means all the following EXEPT:
  - a. Robinson gains experience with age and adventures
  - b. He hesitates between good and evil
  - c. There was no conflict inside him at all.
  - d. There are two voices inside him: the voice of reason and the voice of the heart

2. The writer is interested in .....to make his novel achieve verisimilitude.
  - a. Facts
  - b. Data
  - c. Imagination
  - d. A and B

3. "September 30, 1659," is:
  - a. The date of Crusoe's departure from London.
  - b. The date of Crusoe's birth.
  - c. The date of the first entry in Crusoe's journal
  - d. The date of Crusoe's departure from the island.

4. Crusoe calls his island as:
  - a. Island of despair
  - b. Island of loneliness
  - c. Island of Satan
  - d. Island of Hell

5. In his journal, Crusoe:
  - a. Narrates only the events took place after he starts his journal.

- b. Narrates events that have already been narrated like events before he arrived to the island.
- c. Narrates only dangerous events.
- d. All false

6. Crusoe is unable to keep the Sabbath religiously because:

- a. He feels religion has nothing to do in his situation.
- b. He notes that he has lost track of which day is Sunday.
- c. He doesn't believe in Sabbath.
- d. All false

7. Crusoe keeps a journal in order to:

- a. Remember what he has to do in the next day.
- b. Read it to his friends when he goes home.
- c. Record the good and evil aspects of his experience.
- d. All false

8. Crusoe has to quit the journal because:

- a. He runs out of ink.
- b. He feels it is unnecessary at the end.
- c. He gets confused about dates.
- d. All false

9. Crusoe's journal provides:

- a. A lot of interesting new information for us.
- b. Little interesting new information for us.
- c. Not any piece of new information at all.
- d. All false

10. Crusoe's journal does offer insights into Crusoe's character, especially:

- a. His conception of his own identity.
- b. His despair.
- c. His humour.
- d. A and B

11. When Crusoe at first introduces himself as “poor, miserable Robinson Crusoe,” it strikes a startling note of:
- a. Self-confidence.
  - b. Self-pity
  - c. Selfishness
  - d. All false
12. Continuing his journal, Crusoe records his ..... attempt to tame pigeons.
- a. Successful
  - b. Fail
  - c. Interesting
  - d. All false
13. He manufactures of candles from:
- a. Olive oil
  - b. Fish oil
  - c. Goat grease.
  - d. All false
14. He discovers the ability of planting corn:
- a. By coincidence when he tossed out a few husks of corn in a shady area.
  - b. When he intentionally tried to.
  - c. When he found the corn already planted in the island.
  - d. All false
15. On April 16, ..... nearly kills him as he is standing in the entrance to his cellar.
- a. Earthquake
  - b. Volcano
  - c. Lightning
  - d. All false
16. Crusoe utters his first serious prayer to God:
- a. During his sickness.
  - b. During the Earthquake
  - c. During the hurricane

d. All false

17. He opens the Bible to read a verse about:

- a. God's destiny.
- b. Calling on the Lord in times of trouble.
- c. Peace.
- d. All false

18. After being affected deeply by what he reads, he falls into a profound sleep of more than twenty-four hours. This led to:

- a. Throwing off his calendar calculations forever.
- b. Forgetting where he left some items.
- c. Feeling of a severe headache.
- d. All false

19. He comes to conceive of his isolation on the island as a kind of:

- a. Destiny
- b. Deliverance from his former guilty existence.
- c. Test from God.
- d. All false