1) it refers to the inventory of lexical items, seen as part of a native speaker's knowledge of his or her language.

- Lexicon

- Productivity

- Blocking

2) a lexicon is the

- mental dictionary

- Productivity

- Lexicon

3) Not all words one speaker knows are also known by other speakers.

- true

- mis

4) the mental dictionary _____ of one speaker is never completely identical to any other speaker's mental lexicon.

- Lexicon

- Productivity

- Blocking

5) the mental dictionary (lexicon) of one speaker is _____completely identical to any other speaker's mental lexicon.

- never

- always

6) The lexicon contains...

- few words

- more than words

- one word

7) _____ know and understand such affixes and readily attach them to new forms

- Speakers

- Readers

- Listeners

8) 'anti-dis-establish-ment-ari-an-ism'
- Irish complex word
- arabic simple word

9) the lexicon includes
- all the linguistic forms
- one the linguistic forms:
- tow the linguistic forms:

10) When a word that does not exist in the lexicon is created through a morphological rule,
- occasionalism
- Neologism

11) If this neologism is used once and never again,
- occasionalism
- Neologism

12) A rule is the one we can use frequently to form new words.
- Productivity
- occasionalism
- Lexicon

13) The property of an affix to be used to coin (invent) new complex words is referred to as the _____of that affix.
- Lexicon
- Productivity
- Neologism

14) Not all affixes possess this property to the same degree, some affixes do not possess it at all that is..
- unproductive
- Productivity
- Neologism

15) Good-ness ,global-ize

- More productive

- less productive

16) invit-ee, profit-eer

- More productive

- less productive

17) the phenomenon whereby the existence of a word with a particular meaning inhibits the morphological derivation of another word with precisely that meaning.

- Productivity

- Neologism

- blocking

18) day after today' Means...؟

- today

- tomorrow

- yesterday

19) day before today means..?

- yesterday

- tomorrow

- today

20) stealer' is blocked by the existence of

- thief

- knife